CHARACTERISTIC OF WOMAN.—A case has just come to light in this town which is characteristic of woman's disposition to relent when troubles overtake the person against whom her ire may have been raised. Instances are numerous where in a woman has been shamefully abused and subjected to personal violence by her lawful and wedded husband; but almost invariably, after causing the arrest of the husband for assault, the wife, finding him in the clutches of the law, relents, and by tears and supplications endeavors to screen him from the penalties of the outraged law. Whether this trait in woman's character does not at times betray her into the commission of a wrong against society is very questionable. But with that question we are done for the present. The case under consideration is that of Guillermo Jose, who was arrested the other day for shooting at his wife. The case is set for trial on Friday, but the public heart will in the meantime be touched upon reading the following pathetic appeal of the wife in behalf of her husband.

POCICHE, Nov. 27, 1872. To the Justice of the Peace of the Township of Pioche—I have no changes to make against my husband, who was arrested on the night of the 25th for shooting his pistol in the house, as it went off accidentally, and I shall not appear against him. Yours, respectfully, ANN JOSE.

SAD CASE OF DESERTION.—We purpose to omit the names of the parties in recording a case like the one under consideration. We have all the facts, from which it appears that a hardworking man who had a wife and two children—both boys, aged two and five respectively—has met with a domestic misfortune rarely falling to the lot of any man. His wife has deserted his bed and board and taken up with some other man to whom her fancy directed her wayward steps, leaving the children, at an age when they stand most in need of a mother's care, to be provided for by the father. Being poor and dependent upon his daily labor for his support and that of his offspring, he is left in a deplorable condition. We understand that the man is willing to give the whole of the proceeds of his labor, beyond his necessary expenses, to maintain his offspring comfortably; but he finds great difficulty in securing a proper place for them. This is a remarkable case of woman's faithfulness, and should, while covering her conduct with shame, elicit sincere sympathy for the wretched husband and father.

DISTRICT COURT.—The December term of the District Court commences on Monday. Following is a list of the Grand Jurors:

- E. Hamilton, J. W. Wright, D. Wilkin, Z. Palmer, A. Brown, Charles Heath, G. W. Melone, George Arnold, E. A. White, J. M. Coschina, A. W. Gear, W. H. Dolman, G. C. Johnston, F. A. Buck, O. P. Sherwood, E. Heintzelman, A. F. Barron, F. A. Buck, A. A. Young, George Sammons, F. Kasten, H. C. Bryan, Myles Quilan, Charles Wiederhold.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—About 10 o'clock yesterday morning Emeline V. Piermont complained before Justice Stoutenburgh that the crime of assault and battery had been committed by Jas. Rafferty. It appeared from the testimony adduced that no pet names were called either by the defendant or the complainant. The proof of the assault and battery was conclusive, and the Court assessed a fine of $1 and costs, amounting to $30. Defendant chose to serve out the time in jail at $2 per day, and officer McIntyre escorted him to the lock-up.

OYSTERS, OYSTERS.—We are indebted to Messrs. Gifford & Brisacher, of the San Francisco Restaurant and Chop House, Meadow Valley street, for a bountiful supply of choice oysters, including the Baltimore, the New York Transplanted and the Shoalwater Bay oysters. These delicacies were highly relished by all hands in the Record office, and a unanimous vote of thanks was at once passed. The lovers of the oyster can have their desires satisfied at the establishment of Messrs. Gifford & Brisacher.

WOODS' CASE.—James Woods was brought up yesterday before Justice Stoutenburgh, for the killing of William McCarty. The time for the assembling of the Grand Jury being near at hand, it was moved by the defendant, and consented to by the prosecution, that the examination be postponed until the 7th of December. It is expected by all parties that in the meantime the Grand Jury will act upon the case, so that the expense and tedium of a preliminary examination will be unnecessary.

FINE ORGANIZATION.—Members of the Lighter Hook & Ladder Company and Pioche Hose Company are notified that there will be a meeting this evening at 7 1/2 o'clock at the school house. A full and punctual attendance is requested. The interests of the whole town depend in a great measure upon the efficiency of the department, and the meeting this evening should be attended by every member.

The finishing touches are being put upon the rooms in the upper story of the Court House. The District Court will hold a session in the newly plastered Court room on Saturday, and the County Clerk expects to occupy his former quarters to-morrow or next day.

DANCE THIS EVENING.—Those who delight in the pleasures of the dance should not forget the party to be given at Mrs. Grambs' Hotel this evening. A most enjoyable time may be relied upon by all who attend. We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket.

MASONIC BALL.—The members of St. John's Lodge purpose giving a grand ball on the evening of the 27th of December, having secured Jacobs & Sultan's building, Main street, for that occasion. The list of committees, etc., will be announced in due time.

THEATRE.—The theatre last evening was crowded throughout, giving Mr. Lorraine a first-class benefit, which he deserved. The entire performance seemed to give perfect satisfaction. Mr. Lorraine tenders his most sincere thanks to the public for their kind patronage. The troupe will not make their appearance again until the 1st or 3d of December. The establishment will be taken charge of by S. R. Calhoun and in future he will manage the entire institution. The theatre will undergo a thorough overhauling. It will be boarded on the outside and lined on the inside, making the place comfortable and cozy for the winter months. A parquette will be arranged after the style of the Alhambra, San Francisco, whereby the ladies and families of our town can be comfortably seated and not annoyed by people constantly passing them. The other seats will be re-arranged and placed so all can see the stage. Mr. Calhoun proposes to make the theatre as pleasant and equal to any in the State. He will employ the best of talent and earnestly asks the citizens to assist him by giving him full houses.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.—Impressive services were observed at the Catholic Church last evening.—Rev. Father O'Neill officiating. The congregation in attendance was quite large. An increased interest in religious matters has been the result of Father O'Neill's ministrations in Pioche.

TO ARRIVE TO-DAY.—The following passengers left Hamilton yesterday for Pioche, who will arrive on to-day's stage: D. M. Vissick, S. H. Wellington, Robt. Stevens, Laura Freudenthal, P. Harris, T. Jay Cherry, J. E. Crossman, J. N. Vimont, Morg. Cavanaugh.

AMONG the recent arrivals here we note that of Richard Nagle, a brother of John Nagle, Superintendent of the Portland mine. The first named gentleman is well known in connection with mining enterprises on the Comstock range, and has come to Pioche to remain.

$500 REWARD.—The above reward will be paid to anybody who will furnish as good a Cigar as is sold at H. Michael's for 25 cents. Always on hand, a large assortment of genuine Havana Cigars. No imitations sold here under false pretenses.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—Father O'Neill will lecture at the Catholic Church Friday evening on the ever-present evils of intemperance. He is a gentleman of fine attainments, and will doubtless interest his hearers.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.—There will be Thanksgiving services and sermon at the Episcopal Church this morning, services beginning at 11 o'clock.

MAN STABBED.—Late last night we heard of a difficulty between two men at Dry Valley, in which one of them received two cuts in the side with a knife. No particulars.

FULKS & McALPIN will have their saloon properly papered to-day, and will re-open this evening. Give them a call. Imbibers of their liquors lose no flesh in consequence.

W. U. TEL. CO.—To-day the office hours of the Western Union Telegraph Company will be from 8 to 10 a. m., and from 4 to 6 p. m. Give the operators a chance.

THERE are messages at the W. U. Telegraph office for J. B. White, Charlotte Taylor and Mrs. Pitts.

A THANKSGIVING DINNER will be given at the Star Hotel to-day.
